Lifted From Darkness

The Epic Transformation from Living the Nightmare to Healing the Spirit...

On the outside, Jeanette lived the life of a cheerful married woman whose entire life seemed poised for greatness. On the inside, she continued to hide the shadowy secret of a splintered world of torture that she endured for ten years at the hands of the man whose lies she believed.

When she first met Jim, she was a beautiful, young, compassionate nursing student. Jim was her dream husband; dashing, intelligent, charismatic, and rich! Jeanette was immediately captured by his charming personality and quickly fell in love with him. What originated as protective, confident and dominant, swirled into controlling emotional abuse, and then cascaded into a traumatic web of physical and psychological violence, illustrating the intense complexities of love and fury, passion and brutality.

In this touching work of inspiration, Jeanette reveals the entangled suffering and sadistic manipulation experienced by living with an abuser, and carries you with her through the shocking events that led to her escape from the chasm of fear and intimidation. Along the way, Jeanette exposes the heartbreaking effects domestic violence played on her identity as she moved toward true healing and a life of personal fulfillment and success with a faithful trust in God.

Reviews:

LIFTED
FROM Darkness

"Jeanette's story brings hope. She openly shares her life as she grew up in total innocence, married into a life of chaos and destruction, but was completely restored."

-ANGIE MARTIN, BS, NM TECHNOLOGIST

"Jeanette recounts the story that so many women have lived or are living through today—a story that could have made her a bitter woman giving into defeat becomes a story that through the grace of God has seen success and triumph. Her story will make you angry, will raise questions of why, wondering why no one noticed, but will take you to a place of hope and dreams being fulfilled. I am so proud that Jeanette has been willing to tell her story, to face her past, to find healing and to now be in a place to help and encourage others."

-TIM STEVENSON, SENIOR PASTOR AT HORIZON COMMUNITY CHURCH

"Unbelievable and encouraging! Jeanette has detailed a real life experience that so many women have endured and can relate. Even more importantly, Jeanette's boldness to bring her story to light can and will continue to encourage thousands who feel trapped out of guilt or fear."
